

RE-ESTABLISH ABAWD/WIOA Job Search Record

Able-Bodied Adults Without Dependents (ABAWDs) can re-establish SNAP eligibility by completing at least 80 hours of Job Search Activity in a consecutive 30-day period since losing eligibility for SNAP benefits for not meeting the ABAWD work requirements.

Examples of Approved Job Search Activity:

- ✓ Researching jobs and local employers
- ✓ Completing and submitting job applications
- ✓ Preparing for or participating in job interviews or job fairs
- ✓ Attending job search workshops
- ✓ Working with CNY Works and the NYS Department of Labor (DOL)

Instructions:

- Use the Job Search activity attendance record on the back of this page to track your Job Search
- Failure to submit attendance records by the due date may result in the denial/discontinuance of your SNAP benefits.
