FACILITIES	NATIVE EXHIBIT	719602	$ 500,000.00	$ -	$ 498,979.00	$ 1,021.00	The Native Cultural Exhibit will recognize and celebrate the history, culture, language, and continuing presence of the Haudenosaunee people as an integral part of the Onondaga County Aquarium. Developed in consultation with Haudenosaunee representatives, the project will include an outdoor Tree of Peace exhibit, incorporation of Haudenosaunee names for freshwater species throughout the Aquarium, and murals and kiosks featuring cultural imagery, narratives, and voice recordings. Together, these elements will provide visitors with an educational experience that honors the region's Native heritage and the Haudenosaunee connection to the lands and waters of Central New York
