

Library Reference 11.10.4

Home

photo: Joe Pye weed by zero-x

inside OEI

capabilities

programs

resources affiliates

Welcome to the Onondaga Environmental Institute

The Onondaga Environmental Institute is a non-profit organization whose mission is to advance environmental research, education, planning, and restoration in Central New York.

RESEARCH

EDUCATION

PLANNING

RESTORATION

What's New at OEI

November 5, 2010 The Environmental Protection Agency US (USEPA) will hold a public meeting (flyer) at 6:30pm, on Friday, November 5, 2010 in the Grimshaw Elementary School cafeteria, 5957 Route 20 West, LaFayette, NY (map), to discuss alternatives to the USEPA Scoping Document to alleviate sedimentation from mudboil activity. More...

October 23, 2010 OEI sponsors a room at the United Way - Success By 6 2010 Book Fest at Hughes Elementary Middle School. The theme of the this years Book fest was "Read, Reuse, Recycle", so Success By ^ coordinators contacted OEI to participate. More...

October 18, 2010 OEI is seeking a full-time Executive Assistant (Job Description). Qualified applicants please email your resume and salary requirements to outreach@oei2.org with Executive Assistant in the subject heading.

October 14, 2010 OEI President Ed Michalenko, spoke as one of many experts at a press conference for U.S. Representative Dan Maffei's stance on global climate change. For press coverage follow the link. More...

September 30, 2010 OEI would like to congratulate Les Monostory for being one of the six national finalist for Field and Stream's Heroes of Conservation Award. Mr. Monostory and the Izaak Walton League of America \(Central New York Chapter\) are partners of the OEI. More...

 Find us on Facebook

Copyright © 2008 OEI | Phone (315) 472-2150 | Fax (315) 474-0537 |  Share

<http://www.onondagaenvironmentalinstitute.org/>

11/8/2010